A FRIGHTENING EXPERIENCE

AN AVALANCHE IN THE ALPES

Last winter I went to the Alpes to go skiing with my parents and I will never forget when an unfortunately event happened.

We were at the hotel while we heard a noisy<sup>e</sup>. We had been walking some minutes before so we thought it probably was anything important. Later, one waitress came into our bedroom to tell us it was an angry<sup>x</sup> avalanche! We didn't know what to do because it was the first time it (~~had been~~) had happened to us! Surprisingly, when we went out to see ~~(to)~~ that, ~~(a)~~ everyone was frightened. We had to go by car at 250 km per hour to a safe place. What a close shave!

Afterwards, we returned to the hotel safe and sound. ~~(when)~~ I had been scared <sup>to death</sup> so ~~the~~ next time, I will think twice about going <sup>skiing</sup> into the mountains (~~to go skiing~~)!
