

A FRIGHTENING EXPERIENCE

One day a friend and I decided to go shopping. As we were talking and laughing, <sup>the</sup> night came over, but we did not care at first.

It all happened when we stopped walking, we realized we <sup>had</sup> got lost. We came to a part of the town where there was nothing apart from us, and a creepy forest. We were exhausted after <sup>all the day</sup> walking, and we were starving too. <sup>spending</sup>

Suddenly we found a huge house, and all the lights were on, but no-one seemed to be there. In our conditions, we had nothing to do, so we entered as we needed to eat and drink. In the moment we sat down in ~~the~~ kitchen, all the lights went off. The situation was so scary <sup>that</sup> we couldn't react. <sup>My</sup> friend saw a shadow and screamed and I was petrified. A man came to us and turned on the lights. He understood the situation and drove us home.

I have never felt so scared and embarrassed as I did that day! But one thing is clear, I won't go shopping until <sup>the</sup> night comes!
