"MONEY IS ESSENTIAL IN OUR LIVES"

Nowadays, if money is essential in our lives is a topic very prominent when we speak about the global crisis. However, the answer seems to be easy: yes, it is. Money is the engine world's engine and all of it turns around it.

Most of people have money on them when they go out even if they ~~went~~^{don't} go shopping. That's why going window-shopping is a new hobby and shoppers wait months in order to buy material possessions - which most of them becomes junk. Consumption is a new type of life, we don't know how to spend our time without wasting money on activities like going to the cinema, drinking a cola or buying a new book.

Furthermore, business world is focus^{ed} on money and makes an influenced on people with aggressive ~~advertis~~ ads which jump out at you when you least expect it. Consumerism makes other people become wealthy although there are the haves and the have-nots. Being overdrawn is because of we are used to spend^{ing} more than we have and ~~to be in debt~~ owe somebody.

To sum up, From my point of view we can't change our new style of life. If only we were aware of the importance of saving up for future ... if we could get it, life would be easier.
